From Saturday November 22. to Tuesday November 25. 1712.

THE following Addreſs from the Shire of Perth, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Marquis of Tullibardine, being introduced by his Grace the late Duke of Hamilton.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Barons and Freeholders of the Shire of Perth.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE are at a loſs for Words to expreſs ſufficiently, the deep Senſe rivetted in our Hearts of the manifold Bleſſings we enjoy under Your auſpicious Reign, particularly Your gracious Endeavours to reſcue us from the Calamities of a long, bloody, and expenſive War.

It is an Inſtance of unparallel'd Goodneſs in Your Majeſty, and Affection to Your People, that (tho' the making Peace and War be Your undoubted Prerogative) You was pleaſed to communicate to the Parliament the Terms on which a ſafe and laſting Peace could be obtained, before it was concluded, and has ſignally imploy'd Your great Wiſdom, Councils and Power in accompliſhing it, ſo much for the Intereſt and Happineſs of Britain, notwithſtanding the Oppoſition of ill deſigning Men, who regarded their own private Intereſt more than that of the Publick.

Therefore we humbly beg leave to return to Your Majeſty our moſt hearty Thanks for Your inexpreſſible Care of us, and for the agreeable Progreſs You have already made, to the making us happy by a Peace ſo much deſired by all Your loyal Subjects; and we are fully ſatisfy'd that Your Majeſty will, by Your wiſe Conduct, bring it in due time to a happy concluſion.

May the great God whom Your Majeſty repreſents here on Earth, continue to aſſiſt Your firm and royal Purpoſes; to preſerve the Right of Your Crown, the Reformed Religion, and Liberty of Your People, the Ballance of Power in Europe, preſerve and encreaſe the Trade and Wealth of Your Dominions. And toward the ſecuring thoſe precious Advantages both to the Sovereign and the Subject, we beg leave to conform to the ancient and inviolable Loyalty of this Shire, to make a free Offer to Your Majeſty of our Lives and Fortunes: And that after a long, proſperous and happy Reign here, Your Majeſty may change a fading with an immortal Crown, and leave the Example of ſo many brave and wonderful Actions to Your Royal Succeſſors, is the ſincere and fervent Wiſh and Prayer of, may it pleaſe Your Sacred Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt humble, moſt dutiful, and moſt obedient Subjects and Servants.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

Venice, Nov. 18. N. S. Laſt Night the Senate elected Signor Ferigo Corner, Ambaſſador in ordinary to Her Majeſty, in the room of Signor Grimani, who is to return home. Several Venetian Veſſels are come in from the Levant, and bring an account, that a great Fire hath happen'd at Galata, near Conſtantinople, which burnt down above Eighteen hundred Houſes. We are inform'd from Cremona, that ſome German Soldiers having eaten the Fleſh of an Ox that dy'd of the contagious Diſtemper, fifty of them were kill'd by it: Whereupon the Magiſtrate of Health fearing the Sickneſs may in this manner be communicated among the People, hath order'd Paliſado's to be planted on the Frontiers, with a Guard to hinder Paſſengers from coming out of the Cremoneſe into the Territories of this Republick. They write from Naples, that the Viceroy had given the Order of the Golden Fleece, in the Emperor's Name, to the Princes Baſignano, and St. Severo. The violent Rains that have fallen lately in that Kingdom, and in the Pope's Dominions, have rais'd great Floods in many Places, and done much damage to thoſe Countries.

Copenhagen, Nov. 19. N. S. The King intends in a few Days to ſet out from hence towards the Army, that he may be in a readineſs to give Directions on occaſions which it is thought will require his Preſence. The Daniſh Cavalry in Bremen, is ordered to join his Majeſty's Forces in Holſtein, after which they are all to march to the Frontiers towards Mecklenburg; but no Reſolution hath been hitherto taken for their advancing any further, tho' it has been very much preſs'd by the Muſcovites and Saxons. And in caſe the King doth not think fit to comply with that Requeſt, they deſire he will at leaſt ſend them Three thouſand Horſe, that they may be enabled to attack the Swedes, the Czar's Cavalry, which is ſaid to amount to Nine thouſand, not being in a condition to do Service. Monſieur Huguetan, who hath been two Months here under the Title of Baron d'Odyck, is naturaliz'd, but it is not known whether he intends to ſettle altogether in this Country.

Gohre, November 23. N. S. Monſieur Goes, Envoy from the States-General to the King of Denmark, arrived here Yeſterday, and this Day he had an Audience of the Elector. He is come to deſire the Battalion this Court had placed at Hamburgh might be ordered to withdraw from thence; but it is is ſaid Directions were given to that purpoſe before his arrival. The Troops of his Electoral Highneſs, which were in Britiſh Pay in Flanders, are upon their March homewards. Letters from Mecklenburg bring advice, that the Swedes, to the number of Fifteen thouſand Men, have ſpread themſelves up and down that Country, where they raiſe great Contributions, and ſend all the Corn they can find to Wiſmar and Roſtock. A Detachment went towards Swerin, the Duke's Reſidence, and demanded greater Contributions than the whole Dutchy can pay. Theſe Letters add, that the Danes are in motion to endeavour to join the Muſcovites and Saxons, but it's doubted whether they will be able to effect it.

Utrecht, December 2. N. S. On Saturday the 26th paſt, Prince Eugene ſet out from hence on his way to Vienna. On the 28th a Conference was held amongſt as many of the Miniſters of the Allies as are at preſent reſiding here, Count Sinzendorff and ſeveral others being gone to the Hague, in order to meet the Earl of Strafford. The Cardinal de Bouillon is returned from thence to this Place. On the 30th, Monſieur Vandervew, one of the Deputies of the States of Brabant, came here, and Yeſterday he was for ſome time with the Lord Privy Seal, after which he went to the Hague, intending to proceed from thence towards Great Britain. The Plenipotentiaries of France have received a Courier from their Court, with the King of Spain's Renunciation to the Crown of France. Laſt Wedneſday was obſerved as a ſolemn Faſt throughout the Seven Provinces, to implore the Bleſſing of God on the preſent Negotiations of Peace.
